

What is the DELE exam?

The Diplomas of Spanish as a Foreign Language (DELE) are the official diplomas that verify knowledge in Spanish as a foreign language, and are issued by the Instituto Cervantes on behalf of the Spanish Ministry of Education. There are 6 levels, in accordance to CEFR: A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 and C2.

Why to get the DELE?

DELE Certificates are worldwide recognised, both by public and private institutions. They are an official warranty on the evaluation and certification of the language skills in Spanish. In Spain, furthermore, they benefit or are even compulsory for some official procedures such as:

- Obtaining the Spanish nationality (level A2 or higher)
- Access to places as Residents in Medicine (MIR) and Pharmacy (FIR) Levels C1 or C2
- Acceptance of studies taken in foreign countries: with the level B2 of DELE, people willing to incorporate to the Spanish education system are exempt from doing the Spanish language exam.
- To apply for workplaces at the public administration which require a certain competency level in Spanish, the DELE Certificate on the required level is a sufficient accreditation.
