BEGINNING OF THE COURSES

I would like to start the course the following Monday:

• The courses start any Monday of the year (except for the special preparatory courses for the exams). If there is a public holiday on Monday, the course starts the following Tuesday.

• No classes are given on public holidays, but they'll be recovered throughout the week. When 2 holiday days fall within one week, only one of them will be recovered.

• Time reductions: if the intensive courses didn't reach the minimum number of participants and there would only be 2 students per group, the daily classes would be reduced to 3 lessons of 50 minutes. If there would only be 1 participant, 2 lessons of 50 minutes would be delivered. Concerning Complementary Courses, if there would only be 1 participant, the class would be reduced to a 60-minute session. In any case, the original price of the courses would be maintained.

• * During the week, the students have the possibility of participating in sociocultural modules with an approximate duration of 5 weekly hours. The topics covered celebrations, Spanish politics, shows, gastronomy, aspects of Spanish and Valencian life.
